

Relocation Day Has Arrived

Ta Ethne is in the process of relocating to sunny Jacksonville, Florida. The process has had its ups and downs but we have seen God walking us through each difficulty in amazing ways. If all goes according to plan, the move should be complete by June 1st. Ta Ethne apologizes for the lateness of this newsletter and begs your forgiveness.

We do ask that you keep us in your prayers as the relocation continues and that God blesses us with even more opportunities to minister to and resource Christian leaders around the world.

Already we have been blessed by prayers lifted up to us from India, China, the Philippines, Canada and Peru (these are just the ones we know about). How can we not praise God with all these saints lifting us and our work before the throne?

Thank you so much for your support.

Jude Commentary and the 180 Project

Our newest resource, a commentary on Jude, has been finished and is now in the editing process. With God's grace, we hope to make it available by the beginning of June.

The 180 Project has been started and work will continue throughout the summer months. The 180 Project will focus on developing resources dealing with biblical repentance. Currently plans call for a book, sermon ideas, multimedia presentation outlines and seminars devoted to this subject. We are very excited about this and believe it to be a resource that will help all of our partners worldwide. One of the stars of the 180 Project will be Zaccheaus and his conversion testimony. The Bible is full of teachings on repentance and the 180 Project hopes to shed light on this doctrine in a practical and helpful way.
